PIPPIN DRYSDALE
Lake Lefroy Suspension

porcelain ad gold luster
20 h × 12 dia in (51 × 30 cm)

Named after Lake Lefroy, an ephemeral salt lake in Western Australia, this piece captures the awe inspiring Australian landscape in Pippin Drysdale's brilliant glaze application. This iconic open vessel was made just two years after a pivotal airplane flight over the Australian countryside which inspired a turning point in her work.

Provenance: Collection of John W. and Marilyn L. Barrett
